Consent to Record and Reproduce Presentation for Webcast

As agreed to during the presentation submission process, all conference sessions will be webcast and the posting of the presentation audio is mandatory with the acceptance of an oral presentation. Your presentation will be included in HIV Research for Prevention 2018 webcasts. Neither the conference association nor the webcast provider will acquire any ownership of your presentation or your materials.

EXCLUDING SLIDES: If you choose, you may withhold selected slides or all slides from the webcast of your presentation. Withheld slides are substituted with a "Slide Not Available" slide, but end-users still hear your audio discussion of the slides withheld. Please indicate your preference for webcast use of your slides below.

CHOOSE THE APPROPRIATE OPTION BELOW

Use all slides: I consent to have all slides from my presentation used in the HIVR4P 2018 webcast. All of the material in this presentation is either owned by me, or reproduced with permission and complies with the rules governing abstract submission.

Withhold slides listed below: I wish to withhold the following slides from the HIVR4P 2018 webcast of my presentation (please list the slide numbers below):

Withhold all slides: I wish to withhold all slides from the webcast of my presentation and have only the audio included in the webcast.

MAKING SLIDES AVAILABLE TO MEDIA

Occasionally, members of the press corps request copies of slides or presentations to inform their coverage of the meeting. Journalists may refer to presentation slides only in accordance with the conference embargo policy, and may not publish or share slides without the author's permission. Please indicate whether a copy of your slides may be provided to journalists if requested.

Accept: I agree that my slides (in accordance to the withholding criteria outlined above) are distributed to journalists covering HIVR4P 2018.

Decline: Please do not share any slides.

MAKING SLIDES AVAILABLE TO CONFERENCE RAPPORTEURS

Conference rapporteurs summarize research presentations and discussion at HIVR4P for conference attendees through written summaries of session highlights. The daily written summaries will be posted on the conference website. Rapporteurs may refer to presentation slides only in accordance with the conference embargo policy, and may not publish or share slides without the author's permission. Please indicate whether a copy of your slides or presentation may be provided to conference rapporteurs if requested.

Accept: I agree that my slides (in accordance to the withholding criteria outlined above) are distributed to journalists covering HIVR4P 2018.

Decline: Please do not share any slides.
